

I am on the road frequently and I am an avid listener to XM radio. It provides virtually everything I can think of to listen to and for the life of me WHY should the NAB be able to dictate who and what I listen to. I PAY for this service and I consider it UN AMERICAN for some group to be able to infringe on my rights.